- Children under 12 go free! Children over 4 still need a pass, but it costs £0 if accompanied by an adult (max 2 children per adult, the adult must buy an Adult pass, not a Youth or Senior pass). However, children still need to pay passholder reservation fees.
- Child = aged 4 but under 12. Youth = anyone aged under 28 on first day of pass validity. Senior = anyone over 60. Children under 4 free.
- Continuous means that you pick the date you want your Interrail pass to start, and it then gives 15 days, 22 days or 1 calendar month's continuous unlimited travel for the whole of that period.
- Flexi means that the Interrail lasts for an overall period of either 1 month (for the 4, 5 or 7-day passes) or 2 months (for the 10 & 15-day passes), starting on any date you specify, but you only get 4, 5, 7, 10 or 15 days of unlimited travel within that period. You 'spend' each day of unlimited travel by writing the date in one of the boxes printed on your pass.
- What countries are covered? The Interrail global pass gives you unlimited train travel throughout Europe, covering the national train operators in Austria, Belgium, Bosnia, Bulgaria, Croatia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia (new from 2020), Finland, France, Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia (new from 2020), Lithuania, Luxembourg, Montenegro, Netherlands, North Macedonia, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey. Though you only get limited travel in your own country of residence, as explained here. For more info on what train operators are covered in each country, see the country-by-country list here.
- Interrail global passes do not cover Russia, Ukraine, Albania, Moldova or Belarus. Morocco dropped out in 2007.
- Other things to budget for: Remember to factor in the cost of (a) getting to mainland Europe with a cheap Eurostar passholder fare or ferry ticket and (b) reservation fees which apply to some trains, especially in Spain, Italy or France, see the Interrail reservations section.
